

Pixie's Pocket

ABOUT ME

I'm Amber, a pixie living in the beautiful Appalachian mountains of North Carolina. Through blogging and active social media, I've created a following of others interested in rekindling the oft-forgotten skills of the hearth and home.

When I'm not blogging, I'm working as a social media marketer. You can also find me outdoors taking pictures of plants, insects, or food.

PIXIESPOCKET.COM

Founded in 2008, Pixie's Pocket has been dedicated to sharing knowledge of the hearth and home and empowering readers to make much of the bounty of their own wild paradise.

My most popular posts are those about foraging wild foods, fermentation projects, and brewing meads, wines, and beers.

Pixie's Pocket is most popular among those who identify as female, between the ages of 25-34 with an interest in home and garden, cooking, and recipes.

Most of my visitors come from the United States, followed by the United Kingdom, and Canada.

Giveaways and Reviews: If you have a product relevant to the theme of this blog and want us to review it, please let me know. We prefer that you provide a product for Pixie's Pocket to review as well as offer an item to giveaway to a lucky reader, but we can always chat about the options. We are interested in any business with relevant product for our readers: home and garden, homesteading, canning, cooking from scratch, cordials, beers, and bees.
